

Sandy Point Yacht Club Minutes January 08, 2016

After a delicious potluck dinner, the meeting was called to order by our commodore Jeff McKay. We had 24 people in attendance, including two guests who joined our club just before the meeting.

Treasure's report for the previous 2 months show we have a balance of $1426.25, which does not include funds for membership renewals collected before tonight's meeting.

Minutes for the previous 2 meetings (November and December) were read and approved.

Old Business

Members were reminded of the Seattle Boat Show, January 29th through Feb.6th . Free tickets through Wagoner's

Life Jacket Kiosk and Dock Ladder – The need for these improvements will be brought to the the attention of the Sandy Point Improvement Board at their next meeting . As well as member's desire to serve on the Marina Committee.

The Canal Dredging project continues progressing. Officers have been elected. While not an actual Yacht Club project, it is of enormous importance to our boating community.

New Business

Next Month's Meeting Speaker : Charlie Simpson, former Coast Guard Helicopter Pilot who currently works with Homeland security will share some of his experiences. Charlie is a new member of our Sandy Point Community

Tonight's Speaker-Jeff McKay introduced our speaker Richard James, from Farmers Insurance, who gave us an informative presentation about the differing coverages and liabilities involved in boating in our area.

Meeting was adjourned by our Commodore
